

@cca.voice Magazine

The CCA members' magazine was launched in its new format in May 2012. It is sent quarterly to approximately 8,000 local authority decision-makers including Council Leaders, Deputy Council Leaders and Executive Members.

The magazine includes articles written by key figures in local government, the CCA Board and its staff. It is often used as a springboard for policy announcements and regularly covers the activities of the DCLG and Conservative councils. The magazine features campaigning advice and a comprehensive by-election results analysis, as well as features on Party Conference and local government events.

Advertising is a convenient and effective way of targeting the key players in local government.
